

Sig Sauer Armorer's Course

Date: March 8-11, 2010

Location: St. Paul Police Department
West District Community Room
389 Hamline Avenue
St. Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructor: Sig Sauer Armorers

POST: 7 per day

Cost: $195.00 for each classic series and P250, $220.00 for the 1911

This armorers course is designed for officers or agents that use or service Sig Sauer brand handguns or 1911 handguns with their agency. The class will include basic armorer certification upon successful completion of the course. It will cover all aspects of the care and repair of handguns.

This course would be ideal for officers that are department firearms instructors and armorers, as well as those individual officers that wish to have a better working knowledge of how their firearm operates. It will include factory recommended service procedures and repair tips, as well as cleaning techniques that are vital to the continued safe use of firearms. The course will provide the armorer with advanced demonstrations of how the firearms work, and how to repair problems that occur with the firearms.

There will be three separate armorer certification courses hosted by SPPD:

- March 8-9, 2010 Sig Classic Series P220, P225, P226, P228, P229
- March 10, 2010 Sig P250 (new modular polymer frame system in 9mm, 40, 45 acp.
- March 11, 1911 (all calibers)

The minimum number of students will be 20, with a maximum number of 30 per class.
